

Floods

What to Know:

- Floods occur when water overwhelms normal drainage systems, often due to heavy rain, overflowing rivers, or storm surges.
- Flash floods can occur rapidly, posing a significant danger in low-lying or coastal areas.

During:

- Move to higher ground immediately if water begins to rise.
- Avoid driving through flooded roads or walking through swift-moving water.
- Stay indoors, away from windows and doors.

